ON ALL SAINTS' DAY we thank God for all those in Heaven: the famous Saints, the Saints known only to some people, and unknown Saints. We celebrate many ways that God's grace has blessed their lives and led them to virtue. We pray that God's grace will lead us to imitate Saints in any ways we can. We thank God for the all the times that their prayers have helped us.

NOVEMBER from All Souls Day is a month of prayer for those we know who have died. Our Faithful Departed Book is at the altar so you can write names of family & friends you wish prayed for. All November Masses will be offered for them, with the Book on the altar. There is no need to re-write names already entered. The names mentioned in the Prayer of the Faithful will be any recently deceased.
