PALM SUNDAY is when people welcomed Jesus to Jerusalem by waving branches. They also placed them on the road over which He rode on a donkey into the city. It is also PASSION SUNDAY because we read from the Gospel according to Matthew about Jesus's suffering and death, to be commemorated again at length on Good Friday from the Gospel according to John. RED, the colour of blood and fire, is the colour today and Good Friday. It honours Christ's sacrifice and his victory in suffering.
